PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As we approach a new club year, may we as a Club and as individuals, rededicate ourselves to those ideals represented by the emblem of the California Federation of Women's Clubs—Education—Inspiration—Loyalty. Awareness of world and community conditions, and constant effort are necessary to preserve and improve a way of life dear to each of us.

This year book brings to you the very best wishes of your president and officers and directors and we urge that you take an active part in some club activity—we offer all for your participation and enjoyment.

MILDRED CHAPMAN

OUR THEME FOR THE YEAR

Community Service

LIFE'S MIRROR

*There are loyal hearts, there are spirits brave,
There are souls that are pure and true;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you.*

—"Madeline Bridges"

A COLLECT FOR CLUBWOMEN

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one.

And may we strive to touch and know the great, common woman's heart of us all, and, O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind!

Mary Stewart, Colorado, 1904

FLAG SALUTE

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands; one Nation under God, indivisible with Liberty and Justice for All."

STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say: can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the
perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does the Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
Oh thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation.
Blessed with victory and peace, may the heav'n rescued land
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."

CHORUS:

And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

God Bless America, Land that I love
Stand beside her, and guide her,
Through the night with a light from above,
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans, white with foam,
God Bless America, My home sweet home—
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans, white with foam,
God Bless America, My home sweet home,
God Bless America, My home sweet home,

AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties,
Above the fruited plain.
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood,
From sea to shining sea.

WELCOME

*"Welcome" is a lovely word—it means so many things;
The warmth of human friendship, and the pleasure
that it brings;*

True greetings of the kindly hearts who share what they possess:

The cheery hearth, the cozy home, and joy of happiness.

For hospitality does not depend upon our store—

It's what we mean by "Welcome" when our friends are at the door.

And as the Old Year slips away,

The New Year brings to all.

I SHALL REMEMBER

*I shall remember, when my day is spent
How to its gladness little bits were lent
By those who smiled, or nodded as they passed
And cares shall go—only this joy shall last.
I shall be grateful, too, and humbly pray
That on the morrow, as I go my way,
I may go bravely, I may wear a smile,
And help to make some other life worth while.
